

The Web Site Director shall maintain the Corporation website for the use of the Corporation members. The Director shall maintain an email database to send out Corporation information (bi-monthly message bulletins), keep an updated calendar of events, online registration information and forms, and generally maintain the website as a timely and usable informational resource for Corporate.